COLD WEATHER, HOT STYLE

Knits and sweaters with special touches beat the winter blues

STYLING BY ALISON ROTH
PHOTOS BY MEGHAN SAVAGE

Denver winters are a mix of snow and sun, which makes layering an important part of a cold weather wardrobe. Use this season's hottest colors—gold, white, gray, black and blood red—to stay on-trend with real-world takes on the runway's boxy, oversized sweaters and layered knits. With leather, metallics, sequins and specially treated denim, it's easy to mix textures while staying warm. Messy hair makes for easy styling, and deeply pigmented lips with strong brows is all you need to make a statement.

Location: Denver Botanic Gardens at Chatfield. Model: Yana Jones. Wilhelmina Denver. Hair by Lauren Anke. The Parlour Denver. Makeup by Tiffany McCray. Bush Artistry & Company.
